

(Reach, Teach, Preach)

If you are doing something wrong;
stop it now; or else you're gone!

Some folks gets pleasure out of hurting others;
that's no way to treat your sisters or brothers!

Come to your senses before it's too late;
to not do so, with death you date!

If you are mad for no apparent reason,
then your feeling of love are out of season.

To argue with someone over nothing;
like an unloiled hinge, your ways are rusting!

To wallow in guilt that continues to grow;
you'll become colder than a winter snow!

Being a friend is good indeed;
but to do them wrong, on hatred you feed!

Following on the path of danger!
doesn't make you some Long Ranger!

Praying for a person is showing you care;
but not reaching out causes ungodly fear!

There are those that do their best;
all by Grace they endure each test!

Someone that speaks the Truth to all;
this is a soul on Jesus to call.

Getting angry at those that warns your soul;
sinful ways will surely take hold!

(Urgent Response)

Waiting in line is surely a routine. I've even seen people wait in a long-line to get fast-food, and the wait time was longer than if they were to cook it themselves. Now that's dedication to a well expected meal, wouldn't you say?
You've heard the saying: "hurry up and wait." We wait to go to an appointment with the Doctor; then we wait in the waiting room wondering if our name will be called next.
And when it comes to waiting; how about that very long line when traffic is held-up on the interstate. And, in the Military, Soldiers wait in line to get into the Mess-Hall. It just seems to go on and on. We order something online and we wait until it arrives. Go to a bank and you'll find at times you must wait a long time to make a very short transaction. And there's nothing wrong with all of this even though we must learn to be patient to deal with
it. However; the most dangerous and unnecessary wait...
it's when someone puts off Salvation thinking they can wait until a later-date to get saved! That's almost like slowly sinking down into quicksand not caring what will happen next. In a situation like this a person needs to do whatever is necessary to escape! Being lost in sin is nearly the same, but now someone is throwing you a rope hoping to pull you out! The name of that rope is called "forgiveness of sin through Christ Jesus." Take hold and don't wait or else darkness could pull you under and cost
you your eternal soul.

Colossians 3:15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

(Rain is Coming)

Rain is coming this you can know
It could arrive in the form of snow
It will surely be felt from all around
In the Country as well as Town

The sun will then come out again
The Birds to sing like a caring Friend
The brightness to appear up above
The gladness is felt in the form of love

Let us be thankful for God will provide
Let us go forth with nothing to hide.
Let us tell others while warning of pride
Let us be true and you'll not subside

We are on a journey of hope and faith
Never look back: just keep the pace
More than before a Message is needed
Most of all... it must first be heeded

Decision Time is Here!

When a Preacher is reaching out in the Word, People have been known to say, "it sounds like he was talking right to me." Well, the Truth of the matter is this: God is speaking to us all in accord with His Word: however, the question is... do we listen and respond, or just pass on by without giving heed? My Friend... the Lord is speaking to you now and to refuse His love and forgiveness is like walking blindfolded into rush hour traffic in Downtown Atlanta Georgia. Do something now, and find everlasting peace in Jesus Christ! Don't be afraid to get saved, be terrified if you hold back!

Repent and Rejoice!
