

A Glorious View

Jesus Christ is coming soon to get His Children: Get saved now and don't be left behind! If you are saved, then you can rejoice forever!

For there is no other way:

But to Trust and Obey!

Psalm 121:1 I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

Glory to God!

Psalm 24:1 The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. 2: For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.3: Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place? 4: He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. 5: He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. 6: This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah. 7: Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. 8: Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. 9: Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in. 10: Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

After being asked once, what things were not so fine for me in my younger days; my thoughts went haywire and became even shaky for a moment.

The things not so fine were when my mind couldn't or wouldn't concentrate on the things being taught to me while being told what to do. Some things sunk in but other things went right out into the nothingness!

Some people would say that's normal for a younger person, but for me... it just seemed like some of what was being told may or may not had mattered. depending.

The good thing is, there was never a time my heart didn't get overwhelmed when hearing about Jesus. That was the part that made sense more than anyone or anything else.

However, once surrendering my heart to Jesus fully, that was when things began to come into focus! But what doesn't make any sense to this day is when you see people allowing their lives to be destroyed by sin.

They are warned and they see what happens to others that take on a careless, carefree lifestyle... but some will go to the point of never turning back!

Now the good things that took place in my earlier years was, Family, Church and just enjoying life in the best way God would allow! Playing music was also a great pastime which continued on into my earlier adult years.

Going to where you need to be is to be where you need to go.

This is the greatest moment to make whatever decision God would have you to make by trusting Jesus through faith.

It's right to reject the wrong, especially when many are trying to make wrong, look right!

Don't be pulled-in by the deceived-masses that think their ways will never be judged: especially knowing that they have been judged already. Therefore, repent!

While thinking back to an earlier time: some things good others not as fine. Much to learn along this path: but the things that mattered were the things that last. Working at the Hospital helped me out: watching the hallways walking about. Checking on Patients for any certain need: hearing a message from the Gospel seed. One Patient told me, trust Jesus in love: He was ready to go to his Mansion above. The room next door was Old Mr. Wright: He laughed so often like turning on a light! Then, there was Bobby wanting some light bread: Tell me about Jesus: this he often said. Bobby wanted a banana from day to day: He smiled so brightly without delay! There was Mr. Sam injured cutting wood: but he kept moving forward the best that he could. These folks taught me about why and how: what was learned then, still affects me now! After meeting my wife, Peggy is her name: A Nurse that cares, not looking for fame! My life is blessed because Jesus came in: to save my soul from evil and sin! Never forget what all God has done. Most of all, He gave us His Son!
